FOR PRESIDENT. GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT, OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM,

"I HAVE SERVED THE UNION FOR FORTY-ODI YEARS, AND FEEL MYSELF A CITIZEN OF EVERY PART OF IT; AND WHATEVER OF LIFE ANI STRENGTH I MAY HAVE SHALL BE DEVOTED TO LITE PRESERVATION."—Gen. Winnield Scott's Castle Garden Speech.

OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Attention, Whigs!

Grand Whig Rally!-The Whigs of the Sixth Ward (Navy Yard) will dedicate their Scott and Graham Pole and Union Platform on Tuesday night, the 3d of Au gust, at 8 o'clock, by a grand procession and a magnificent display of Fireworks! Speeches will be made by some of the most distinguished men of the day.

Brother Whigs of the several Wards are invited to attend WASHINGTON, July 27. [Rep. & Intel.]

Whigs of the City!-Take notice that the WASHINGTON WHIG CLUB have determined to attend the Grand Rally of our brother Whigs of the Navy Yard or Tuesday night, the 3d of August. The Whigs of the cit are requested to unite in the procession which will movfrom the City Hall at 7½ o'clock on that evening. Speak ers, music, transparencies, pyrotechnic displays, &c., have all been arranged for, and a good, hearty, old fashiones Whig gathering is expected. THOMAS C. CONNOLLY, Marshal.

The South to the Right About!

Were it not that Gen. Pierce, by himself and his friends, has been running for a time upon the cry of "Protection to the Slave Interest," he might very well receive the special support of the anti-slavery parties of the North-even of the Pittsburg Convention itself. In his New Boston speech he said : "I have been asked if I like this fugitive slave law. I answer, No-I LOATHE IT. I HAVE A MOST REVOLTING FEELING AT THE GIVING UP OF A SLAVE: THE LAW IS OPPOSED TO HUMANITY!" And in the United States Senate, (see Cong. Globe, 25th Cong., 2d session,) he said: "I have no HESITA-TION in saying that I consider Slavery a SOCIAL and POLITICAL EVIL, and MOST SINCERELY WISH it had no existence on the face of the earth.' And in the first session of the 23d Congress (House Journal, page 743) he opposed the bill granting permission to Edmund Brooke, of Georgetown, to bring his two negro servants into the District of Columbia.

As an anti-slavery man, indeed, General Pierce makes a pretty fair show for one of so little prominence in public affairs; and it is a great pity for himself that he has spoiled the consistency of his character by "holding with the hounds and running with the hare."

The people of the South, in ignorance of the particular course of the General, have been very well disposed toward him, and will withdraw their support from him with regret. But we re gard it as very certain that they will withdraw it: especially since they are now learning aright the position of General Scott. They remember so well the game of the Van Burens, and they see se distinctly the hands of the Van Burens in this Pierce plot, that they will take warning and be true to themselves. From General Scott, a Southern man by birth, marriage, association, and interest, they can have nothing to fear; and in the cry of "Abolition influence," they are fast learning that there is no truth.

Things are becoming greatly changed in the anti-military candidate is to be again unhorsed! | pay for it.

The merit of having been always a firm suprter of President Jackson-which is presumed to have no little weight with our opponents-is also ever prove so forgetful of propriety as to use a to give of that glorious gathering, full particuwithdrawn from him, upon the authority of Isaac military phrase for the expression of any idea lars of which I will furnish you. The Tariff.

"With regard to the tariff," said Senator Stockton, of New Jersey, in a recent speech, "I rama will remain with us for a few days longer and, had he lived, would doubtless have received must be permitted to say that I regard it of more only. It is a delightful exhibition, and should be that distinguished honor. He was aged about consequence to my constituents than any other bill seen by every one. But, sir, do not misunderstand me. I repudiate the doctrine of a tariff for the purpose of protecting one interest more than another interest, one section more than another section. We are not to consider the interests of fragments, but of the whole people-not of States, but the nation. Sir, we must seek for some sound, well-settled principle upon which to rebuild this theory of a tariff."

Such principle has been already discovered, or we greatly err. Democrat as he is, Commodore Stockton's aid will be thankfully received by his Whig friends. The labor of the people of the whole country should be protected, and the means

In the incidents of the heartrending scenes and loss of life in the destruction by fire of the steamer Henry Clay, we observe that Mr. Cooper, of Tennessee, saved himself, and offered to save the life of a young lady, by being provided with a single, simple life preserver, clasped around his body. If the vessel had been furnished with a couple of hundreds of self-inflating Nautillus Life Preservers, it can be safely asserted that not a life would have been sacrificed.

Georgia Politics. The Savannah Georgian (Democratic) says:

Out of thirty-odd political presses published in Georgia, we know of but three that sustain the Constitutional Union electoral ticket—the Athens Banner, the Marietta Constitutional Union, and the Cassville Standard. These are weekly papers, published in the northern part of the State-the Banner, at Gov. Cobb's place of residence. On the other hand, the Democratic electoral ticket is supported by from twelve to fifteen presses, induding each of the daily and tri-weekly Demoratic papers of the State. And among them are the Democratic journals of all the important towns-Savannah, Augusta, Macon, Columbus, Milledgeville, and Atlanta, with the single exception of the (Macon) Citizen, a Union Democratic press, which has hoisted the Scott fing. Thus far not one of the old Whig papers has shown any favor to the mongrel electoral ticket. Knowing, then, how correct an exponent the press generally is of the sentiments of its readers, we think we are authorized in saying that four-fifths, at least, of the Whigs of Georgia refuse to give it their support. Of the Democrats who went into the Constitutional Union organization, we hear of numbers who assert that their connexion with it has ceased. We believe that a very respectable portion of them will be found in November voting for the Democratic electoral ticket, even should the so-called Constitutional Union ticket persist in running."

The Georgian implores the return of Cobb and his especial friends to the fold of the faithful.

Still They Come!

Hon. James E. Belser, for many years a leading Alabama Democrat, and a member of Congress from the Montgomery district, has announced his determination to support Scott and Graham. At a recent ratification in Montgomery, his remarks were reported as follows:

nake a speech, but that he was one who was not fraid to declare at all times his opinions, nor was he affected with the slanderous misrepresenations in reference to Gen. Scott: that he had arefully examined for himself the character and icts of Gen. Scott throughout his whole career, and that he was free to declare that there was no citizen of the whole country who could show so clean a bill, so perfect and untarnished a record, or any one who was more worthy to receive the ighest honors his country could bestow, &c. The remarks of Mr. Belser, though brief, were highly animated and eloquent, and were received with unanimous and continued cheering."

Mr. Meagher.

This gentleman oppears to have gained the admiration of all parties in New York, no less by his fine personal qualities than by the entire propriety and modesty of demeanor which he has observed. The New York Express speaks of him in the following terms:

"Meagher is manifestly a gentleman and a scholar, and, if unfortunate in his own country and an exile now in a foreign land, he is none the less worthy of public esteem. He has the rare merit of modesty, and no more of personal vanity about him, we should judge, than the humblest and most undistinguished of Irishmen. For this we have acquired an admiration of the man which the hot competition we have seen, of late, in the exiled-patriot business, could not repress. Perhaps no man has suffered more for his co in these late days, than this distinguished Irishman; yet no man has been more careful to avoid the least suspicion of making his misfortunes a pretext for prefessional begging."

[From our Baltimore Correspondent.]

BALTIMORE, July 30, 1852. The only business transacted in our goodlie city at this time, save and except the purchase and sale of the necessary household provisions, is altogether of a political character. If, in a business friend or acquaintance, and should accost him with the usual question, "How's business to-day?" he will raise his head, look and stare at you as if he had lost his wits, and, after somewhat recovering from his astonishment, you will hear coming from between his lips an expression something like the following: "Yes, I think we shall carry New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Massachusetts, Louis-" but stop, my good friend, say you, I asked you not how Generals Scott or Pierce were going to run for the Presidency, but simply how is trade. Your friend will then open and rub his eyes as if he had just awoke from a Rip Van Winkle nap, and reply, "Well, I had really forgotten that any business was expected of us until after the Presidential election. How matters and things have "Mr. Belser, on being loudly called for, re-marked that it was not his desire or intention to I am entirely ignorant; you must go and ask my been going on at the store for the last few weeks.

> This is no joke : for such is the life we are now leading, and such it will be until the ides of November show us that the people-the massesthe honest, sober, thinking men-the men who will not pin their coatsleeve to the collar of mere politicians-have rolled a sufficient number of unbought votes to place the hero of a hundred battles in the Presidential chair.

> You, Mr. Editor, know something about the politics of Baltimore; you know that our loco friends are in the habit, when well organized and united, of rolling up their fifteen hundred and two thousand majority for their candidates. This I say you know; but, not being in our midst at] this time, you, of course, are not aware of the curses "loud and deep" that are hourly made at the course and result of the late Democratic National Convention. Baltimore city,-nay, I may say nine-tenths of the Democracy of old Maryland were in favor of the nomination, and firmly wedded to the fates, of the statesman of Michigan, Hon. Lewis Cass. It is hard for them to give him up for a man of yesterday; they will not give him up.

Although they seemingly acquiesce in the decis on of the Convention, they will not support Gen. Pierce at the ballot-box. A great many of them, enough to secure a majority in Baltimore, will either slyly vote for General Scott, or will stay home and not approach the polls. The prediction I am about to make you may think a wild one : you will think so, because you are not upon the spot, but I make it fearlessly. The prediction is this, "Old Fuss and Feathers" (I adopt the soubriquet) will carry the City of Monuments.

THE ENGLISH VERMIN-DESTROYER is now pronounced by those who use it freely the best eradicator of Bedbugs ever introduced here. A lady called yesterday and informed us that the chairs and washboards in some of her neglected rooms were infested with them, and two or three free applications of the liquid have completely routed them, as also from her bedsteads. She has had no trouble since. Call and get a bottle, for 25 cents, at
